Sounds good! Just let me know a good time, I have a feeling my schedule is a lot more flexible.

That should work. Things are really heating up for me between the 193 SEIS and GMT-1, as well as possibly Juneau Access and the Arctic Port, so it just depends. Let's touch base closer to the date.

Thank you so much, that means a lot :). I will really miss working with you, as well, at least this closely.

That's a "definitely" for lunch. Monday the week after Labor Day?

I got ADEC to commit to a quick turnaround, so I am aiming for Wednesday next week. Also, quite a few mine projects will have to be updated either while you are editing or closer to the call date.

I don't know who will assume these duties, but I believe they are hiring a new coordinator to fill my position. I believe Sara Longan will be in contact about that. In any case, don't be a stranger!
